

Serious illness conversations can be hard.
Build the skills you need to make them easier.

Death & Dying Series

for Healthcare Professionals

Enhancing Conversation Skills

CEUs Available!

Death and serious illness are a part of life, but they're still often hard to talk about—even for experienced healthcare professionals. This virtual education series is designed to provide professionals with an opportunity to learn about and practice having conversations around serious illness, death, and dying within a multidisciplinary group in a low-pressure environment. Join us to enhance your comfort and skill with having meaningful end-of-life conversations with your patients and their loved ones.

Who Should Join

- Current Pennsylvania-based practitioners in healthcare-related disciplines seeking to improve their comfort and competence in having conversations around serious illness
- Open to professionals from medicine, nursing, social work counseling, pharmacy, rehabilitation, ethics, pastoral care, law and more!
- CME, CNE, and social work CEUs available!

Dates & Times

Six sessions, Mondays from 3:30 pm to 5:00 pm
October 9 through November 13

Location

All sessions will be held virtually via Zoom.

Applications Open!

Please complete the online application and submit a personal statement. Spaces are limited!

Apply here:
<https://bit.ly/3Xb7ORH>

Deadline:
Friday, September 7, 2023

Questions?

For more information, please contact
Lisa George, george@jhf.org

